BACK TALK

The Maine circus dropped St.
Johnsbury off its itinerary because its managers didn't dare to send its heavy motor trucks across a bridge leading to the show grounds.
The Barre Times thinks it is time for the kids to get up a petition to the village fathers to truss up that bridge.

An exchange who has been reading of some of the auto accidents that have been reported, comes to the conclusion that the more horsepower in the motor the less horsepower in the driver.

AN ENGLISH VIEW

The newspaper cultivates the habit of reading.
It enthusiastically aids in campaigns for the realization of the best principles of social and civic decency. It acts as a medium for developing broader notions of international relations. What travel and art have done for the few, the newspapers do for the many. To be interested in politics and the affairs of the world, to follow the intellectual and moral advancement of one's country and of others is to enlarge one's nature, and our newspapers, in so far as they describe faithfully the happenings and the character of the nations of the world, tend to encourage the broader cosmopolitan spirit. He who becomes tolerant and humane in his ideas of older nations becomes more intelligently interested in the welfare of his own people, country and home.—The American Newspaper by James Edward Rogers.

Real Estate and Personal Property AT AUCTION

TO SETTLE ESTATE, The subscriber will sell at Public Auction on Thursday, June 15

at 9:00 A. M., the farm known as the SERENO A. MORSE FARM, situated 3 miles from Danville, 4 miles from Passumpsic, and 6 miles from St. Johnsbury, in what is known as the Morse neighborhood. Said farm is supposed to contain 100 acres more or less and is suitably divided into tillage or pasture, sugar orchard of about 2000 trees, 1300 of which are equipped, plenty of soft timber to take care of the place. Good supply of running water at buildings.

Buildings are in good repair, ten room house and cow barn with 27 stanchions and silo, horse barn with 5 stalls and carriage room. Said farm is in good state of cultivation and extra good laying fields, with buildings located near center, making it a very easy farm to carry on.

ALSO ALL PERSONAL PROPERTY BELONGING TO SAID ESTATE DESCRIBED AS FOLLOWS:

17 high grade Jersey cows, these cows freshened in Fall and early Winter and are bred to freshen about the same time again, 5 two year old heifers due to freshen in the Fall, 5 one year old heifers, and 5 calves.

All of this young stock and about half the cows were bred on farm and sired by the registered Jersey Bull Dimity's Knight. This bull is a splendid individual and as can be seen is an unusual sire. This bull is perfectly gentle, is very sure and is very Pre Potent, throwing a large percent of heifer calves, this is a rare chance to buy a herd bull of unusual merit and at your own price. Dimity's Knight was bred by J.
H. Putnam, Litchfield, Conn. The grandsire of this bull was sold for $10,000 at auction, which shows something of his backing, also 1 one year old bull, also registered. This bull was bred by W. H. Cass of Danville, and is a very promising animal.

HORSES

One brown horse 9 years old, 1,100 lbs., 1 black mare 9 years old, and 1 chestnut mare. All of these horses are good workers and drivers.

FARMING TOOLS

One mowing machine, 1 horse rake nearly new, 1 two horse lumber wagon, with hay rack and box body, 1 dump cart, 1 Worcester Kemp manure spreader, 1 two horse traverse sled, 1 sap sled, 1 bob sled, 1 disc harrow, 1 smoothing harrow, 2 plows, 1 land roller, 1 corn planter, 1 cultivator, 1 weeder, 1 extra good traverse sleigh, 2 single sleighs, 1 Concord wagon, 1 buggy, 1 express wagon, 3 work harnesses, 1 driving harness, horse blankets, 1 set scales, 1 wheelbarrow, 1 grind stone, 1 cream separator and dairy tools, 5 M. cedar shingles, a quantity of dry lumber, 1 hay fork and rope, lots of household goods and all hand tools too numerous to mention.

score of 14 to 2 in a largely attended game, and a very enthusiastic one.

Friday evening the graduating exercises were held in Music Hall, which was filled to overflowing with the families and friends of the graduates. The program was as follows:

Invocation, Rev. E. W. Sturtevant.

Address of Welcome, William S.
Hall.

The Preservation of our Native Wild Flowers, Bessie Warner.

The Town Manager, Robert Allen.

The Chinese Puzzle, Helen Dexter.

Good Roads, Revillo Wetherbee.

The Heart of America, Eunice Silby.

Historic Spots in Lyndon, Philip Daniels.

Music by the Girls Glee club was interspersed between these essays. There followed an address by Prof. James Richardson of Dartmouth College, on "The Gospel of Democracy," an eloquent oration, and much appreciated by the audience. The diplomas were presented by President Elmer A.
Darling, chairman of the Board of Trustees and the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Charles E. Gould. Thus closed another and memorable commencement.

To Stop Coughing at Night

A summer bronchial cough keeps not only the sufferer but other members of the family awake. Alfred Barker, 1961 Avondale St., E. Liverpool, O., writes: "I consider it my duty to write and tell the results of Foley's Honey and Tar, which I used for my boy who had been suffering from a bronchial cough for 7 or 8 weeks.
Foley's Honey and Tar has done him wonderful good, and I shall always recommend it." It soothes and heals.—Advertisement.

James B. Brown Dead In Concord, N. H.

James B. Brown, father of Dr.
David R. Brown of Lyndonville, died Thursday at his home in Concord, N. H. He was for 30 years a postmaster of the town of Lyndonville, N. H., and for many years a well-known and active citizen of Concord. Mr. Brown was born in Weare, N. H., Sept. 23, 1848, removing to Concord in 1864.
He attended the public schools and in 1870 went to Westworth where he conducted a business as a general merchant until 1908. Mr.
Brown was a Knight Templar, 32nd degree Mason, a member of Baktash Temple and of the Won-olancet club of Concord.

On May 22, 1872, he married Eva M. Merrill of Warren, who survives him, and who only a few days ago celebrated with him the 50th anniversary of their marriage. He is also survived by three children, Mrs. Charles A. Young of Richmond, Vt., Dr. David R.
Brown of Lyndonville, Harry J.
Brown of Concord and two grandchildren, James B. Brown and David R. Brown of Lyndonville.
